Hey we can link the team IG to the page as well if you think you might want that - just took a look and I think it would look nice maybe towards the bottom of the homepage? Just a thought.

When you said the pages all look plain are you referring to the entire website or just the private exclusives pages?

Password for private exclusives page is mooty2025.

If you share an individual link it should bypass

Let's definitely link it!!!

Sweet thought you might want that.

The whole site needs a bit more luxury feel but specifically each listing page

Will look at links shortly!

Driving lol

Ok - I made SOME changes to the listing pages so far structurally - it's in no way finished - just sent that over so you could see that the private exclusives are password protected but you can send a link and access without password

If you want to look at the structure of the yamini page - you'll see a bit more detail/style added, I'm making some tweaks still to it but seriously, any input about specifics you have let me know and I can make it happen

Private Exclusives

I think anytime we're using this font it needs to be all caps

On all the listings including private exclusives, let's do 1 photo across the top similar to this:

4416 Amarra Dr | Austin, TX 78735 | 5 Beds, 6.5 Baths | Dara Allen | Texas Real Estate Agent

with the gallery below that you have to scroll down to access gives it a more custom look

I also like how her contact information is displayed to span the width of the page

Sweet - yeah I actually was changing the font as you sent that - I'll add this stuff to the list and let you know when its re-deployed to take a look

Right now the layout is a lot of blank space

Yup noticed that

Thank you for working on this so quick! The password protection is great!

Make sense? Trying to figure out a way to make password changes easy on your end, for now if you need to change it just text me

Another thought - that would also be a great way to capture contact info....would it be possible to add a "submit your contact info" form (name, email, and phone number) for access

Would be a good way to capture leads

Ok - yup I'll add that right now, very easy. Where are you guys having your contact forms routed to - a CRM or right to email

let's do jerry@christiesrealestatels.com for now, but may update to mootylux@christiesrealestatels.com in the future

thefabpropertygroup.com

Here’s another example site that is great - let’s think a little less red so it doesn’t look cheap

Private Listings in Texas

This is actually exactly what i’m thinking for a contact catch all but I’d like phone number AND email

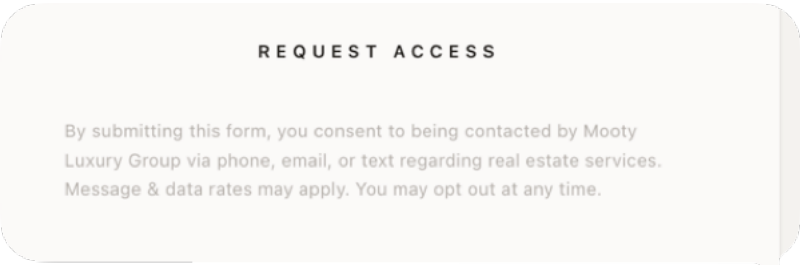

Perfect!! Maybe add in a similar disclaimer that they give us consent to contact them in fine print

Do you guys want an iabs/trec form in the footer
